General Information

- The WCAG meet at the gallery each Wednesday from 10am to 2pm. This is a great opportunity to meet fellow artists, share artistic knowledge and paint. Tea and coffee facilities are available. You are welcome to bring food for yourself or to share, there is a fridge available.
- It is expected that members join with a view to participate in group activities and take a genuine interest in what is happening within the group. WCAG is a Not For Profit organisation and relies heavily on volunteers to help with fund raising, exhibitions, raffle sales, and market days. All volunteer assistance is greatly appreciated.
- WCAG hold a number of workshops each year. There will be a nominated fee per workshops. This will be advertised along with workshops. WCAG gallery is always available for other creative works such as pottery, ceramics, mosaics and sculpture.
- WCAG hold a General Meeting bi-monthly. The Annual General Meeting is the 1st Saturday in April. All meetings are held at the Centre.
- WCAG have a Procedures and Policy Manual. This manual is kept in the cupboard under the front desk. Please take the time to read and familiarise yourself with the running of the organisation.
- It is the responsibility of the artist to have their own insurance for their works of art in the gallery and any exhibition if they so desire. WCAG take all care but no responsibility for any losses or damages.

As a member of the Woodford Community Art Group I agree to the following:-

- I agree to pay the required commission on sales as per my membership fee structure.
 - I agree to not change or remove any paintings from the gallery without the prior permission of a Gallery Co-ordinator. I understand that the Gallery Co-ordinators have the final say of the display of works in the gallery.
 - I understand that signing the Code of Conduct is necessary for my membership.
 - Any issues of complaints are to be emailed to the President (woodfordart@gmail.com) and will be dealt with by the Executive Committee. You will receive an email reply or personal meeting if required.
 - I agree that all works of art I enter into WCAG exhibition under the WCAG name is my own work. That it is not done in a workshop, assisted by a tutor or another member of the art group, copied from another artist, a DVD or magazine.
- I agree to the above: Signed _____ Date: _____
